The first automobile show to be held in any of the inter-mountain states will be held in Salt Lake Nov. 3 to 13, this year. Rupert Fritz, general manager of the First Utah Automobile show, made the announcement yesterday that a show, at which the largest manufacturers in the country will exhibit, and the prospects point to an event that will not only be unique, but will attract attention from automobilists all over the country.

The automobile show will be held in the two main buildings of the Utah State fair. The work of preparing for the show began early in the spring, and already entry foot of space has been the tilized to the best advantage. Cirrulars showing photographs of the two buildings, together with complete floor bean automobile show will participate. From all quarters of the lunited States and Europe, and judgant interest taken by people outside the state is decidedly encouraging. The time set for the show is considered very advantageous to manufacturers, as next year's models will be ready by that time, and contracts to space has been tillized to the best advantage.
